Reason for Allowance

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The primary reason for allowance of the claims is the inclusion of concatenating a first input signal and a second input signal to form an address to access a look-up table or a multiport memory in all of the claims. Since the common definition of concatenating is the joining, connecting, or linking to form a string, series or chain the summing of a first input signal and a second input signal to form the address, as shown by White, cannot be properly termed concatenating.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
